Give a Pianola Piano

Thus you insure diversion and relaxation for yourself, pleasure and education for your family or your friends. The home that has a Pianola or a Pianola Piano contains within itself resources for amusement and entertainment.

The Pianola Piano enables you or any member of your family to personally produce music. It is because the Pianola approaches so marvelously close to the effect of the trained human fingers that the musical world has given it unreserved recognition. The great musicians who recommend the Pianola so highly have repeatedly refused to express any interest in the many other instruments that approach the Pianola's output only partially and imperfectly.

CAUTION.—The Pianola Piano is obtainable in Richmond only at the store of WALTER D. MOSES & CO. The Weber (the choice of Paderewski), the Steck, the Wheelock and the Stuyvesant are the only Pianos containing the genuine Pianola. Easy payments. Prices, $550 to $1,050.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. W. A. Powers of No. 1700 Park Avenue, were at home from 9 to 12 yesterday evening, the occasion being the presentation to their friends in Richmond society of their daughter, Miss Sarah Lindsay Powers, and their cousin, Miss Dudley Powers, who, with her mother, is spending the winter in Richmond. The house was decorated throughout with holly and carnations, the color scheme being most attractively developed in red and green.

In the receiving line to welcome society, which called en masse in paying honor to the two charming buds, stood Mrs. W. A. Powers, Mrs. Dudley Powers, Miss Sarah Lindsay Powers, Miss Dudley Powers, Miss Lucy Harrison Powers and Miss Emily Grace Powers.

Miss Sarah Lindsay Powers wore white point d'esprit, over tulle and pearls. Miss Dudley Powers was in soft white silk; Miss Lucy Harrison Powers in real lace, over satin, and Miss Marriot in white crepe de chine. Miss Lucy Harrison Wade was at the punch-bowl, and assisting in the dining-room were Miss Isabel Jones, Miss Louise Fontaine Powers, Miss Mary B. Powers, Miss Emily Wade and Miss Margaret Riche.

The reception was one of the prettiest debutante functions of the winter. The debutantes were charming and bore themselves with a pretty, girlish gracefulness that was most engaging.

Sailed for Europe.

Mr. C. D. Langhorne, of Mirador, Va., sailed several days ago from New York for England.

He has gone over to bring Miss Nora Langhorne back to Virginia, after a visit she has been making at Cliveden to her sister, Mrs. Walcott Astor. Mr. Langhorne expects to take a house in Richmond when he returns and spend the remainder of the winter here with Miss Nora, who has hosts of friends and many admirers among the smart set of Richmond.

Turner-Ligon.

The wedding of Miss Anna Lella Ligon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Archer Ligon, to the Rev. Virgilus R. Turner, will be celebrated this morning at 11 o'clock in Jamieson Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Charlottesville, Va., the Rev. James Arthur Winn, of Boynton, Va., assisted by the Rev. E. A. Potts, of Clarksville, Va., officiating.

The church will be decorated with evergreens and flowers. Miss Mattie Ligon will render Mendelssohn's Wedding March, assisted by Mr. C. N. Tisdale, on the violin. During the ceremony, a "Vesnetian Love Song" will be played. Mr. J. T. Turner, the groom's brother, will be his best man.

The bride will be attended by Mrs. W. C. Moore as matron and Miss Esther Ligon as maid of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Misses Ellice McLennan, Willie Tisdale, Mae Sizemore and Susie Ligon.

Messrs. J. P. Taylor, T. M. Tisdale, H. H. Ligon and E. M. Gee will act as groomsmen, and Master Charles William Tisdale as ringbearer.

The bride will be attended by her brother, Mr. H. A. Ligon. She will wear a traveling costume of blue, with picture hat, and carry Bride roses. The matron of honor will be gowned in white messaline and the maid of honor in blue. Both will have sheath bouquets of white carnations. The bridesmaids will be alternately in blue and pink and have pink and white carnations.

The wedding party will include visits to Washington and New York. Many beautiful wedding presents have been received, among them a silver service from friends in the church, of which the bride has been organist for a number of years.

Out-of-town guests in attendance will be Mrs. W. C. Moore, of Chuckatuck, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gee, of Keyville, Va.; Miss Lucy Turner, of burg, and the Rev. J. A. Winn, of Boynton, Va.

Outrow-Selden.

Mrs. L. H. Selden, of Newport News, announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Loris Selden, to Mr. D. A. Outrow, principal of Newport News High School and Central School, and widely known in that city. The marriage will take place December 28th at 2 P. M. in the home of the bride, 222 Third Street, the Rev. E. T. Wellford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Newport News, and brother-in-law of the bride, will officiate. The ceremony will be performed quietly, no cards having been sent out.

Miss Selden for several years has been associated in work with the Newport News public schools, is very popular, prominently connected and well known in Richmond.

Miss Nellie Williams, of Cape Charles, who has been spending some time at 215 East Franklin Street, will leave for home on December 24th, to return to Richmond after the holidays.

The Rev. George W. McDaniel has returned from Farmville, where he has been holding a meeting, and will conduct services at the First Baptist Church this evening.

Smith-Thomson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SPENCER, N. C., December 15.—A marriage of much interest took place in Spencer to-night when Miss Lizzie Thomson became the bride of Mr. George W. Smith, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. D. Sherrill, pastor of Spencer Methodist Church. The bride is a daughter of Hon. John C. Thomson, of Davidson county, and Mr. Smith is a Southern Railway conductor.

Coming Marriages.

CHATHAM, Va., December 15.—Marriage licenses have been issued to Maud Payne and Emanuel T. Jefferson, Frank A. Taylor and S. H. Crawley, Mary E. Yates and L. A. McGregor, Ross E. McGregor and J. H. Shaw, Beniah L. Ferguson and J. T. Howell, Virginia Elizabeth Williams and Willie Thomas Shields. All of these marriages are to be celebrated on the 16th.

Christmas Mustel.

PETERSBURG, Va., December 15.—The president of the Southern Female College in Petersburg, has issued invitations to the Christmas Eve celebration in the college chapel by the pupils in piano and vocal music, to be given in the evening of December 18th. The numbers include six selections in piano, six in vocal and six in elation and cover a wide range of artistic and beautiful songs, poems, stories and piano pieces. Two of the vocal numbers are especially appropriate to the Christmas season—"O Holy Night," by A. Adams, and "The Christ Child," solo and chorus, by Van de Water. This is the first of the three regular concerts of each season, given, respectively, at Christmas, Easter and the finals, and each is eagerly looked forward to.

Scott-James. NORFOLK, Va., December 15.—Miss Katherine James, of Oley, Va., and E. W. Scott, of the same place, were married this afternoon in the parlor of the Monticello Hotel, in the presence of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. T. James, and a number of personal friends of both contracting parties. Miss Eve McMath was the maid of honor, and William W. Savage was the best man.

Fort Loudoun Seminary, Winchester, Va., has an ideal new study hall, built of concrete, above the new gymnasium overlooking the historic southwestern bastion of the old fort. The room looks south, west and north, and is equipped with best appliances. The capacity of the building has had to be increased each year to meet the demands of the school.

TO ACCOMMODATE THEIR TRADE. Jahnke Bros., Jewelers, 315 East Main Street, will keep their store open until 10 o'clock P. M., beginning December 18th, until Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott left on the night boat for Washington, and will visit several Northern cities before returning to Oley.
